

MAJOR AWARDS ENTRY FORM

The Joan Hollobon Award

Joan Hollobon was a medical reporter with The Globe and Mail for 25 years until her retirement in 1986. During that time, she acquired a reputation as a master of the art and science of medical reporting.

In honour of Joan, the Hollobon Award is presented annually to members of the media whose work has contributed significantly to the public's understanding of health care.

CPRS members and media outlets are invited to nominate a journalist who work has appeared in print or digital media since January 2015.
