MAJOR AWARDS ENTRY FORM

Philip A. Novikoff Memorial Award

The Award was established in 1988, by Hilda Novikoff to honour the memory of her late husband, Philip A. Novikoff, a founding member and former Director of the Canadian Public Relations Society. The Award consists of a framed scroll and a $1,500 cash award. The award is presented annually, provided that a suitable candidate is identified by the judging panel.

Nominations for the Award may be made by any current accredited member of the Society. Each nomination must be endorsed by at least three additional accredited members of the Society.

The nominee must, in the opinion of the judges, have furthered the standing of the public relations profession in Canada. The Award is intended to recognize a body of achievement rather than any isolated, though outstanding, accomplishments of the nominee.
